President's Remarks

Notes from BJ

Happy Holidays DKG Sisters,

Didn't I write in my last letter that I moved away from Iowa to get away from this weather? My father would watch the late night news and then head out to shovel the snow before he went to bed. It made it so much easier to get out of the house in the morning if the snow wasn't tromped on. He shoveled again first thing in the morning. Where is my father when I need him!

Please stay warm, and take the needed precautions to keep you, your pets, and your house safe.

I am not adding much other than the minutes from the last meeting. Please collect and bring CIS snacks our next meeting.

Stay healthy,
BJ Taylor,
President
